

K-Love has inspired me and makes my day better! If it is taken away there will be no other christian based radio station on the radio. Our youth need to have a station that believes that being a christian is a good thing. Please don't take that away from us!!